The Spirit of Carnival David Danow,2021-05-11 The world of literature responds to the spirit of carnival in ways that are both social and cultural mythological and archetypal Literature provides a mirror in which carnival is reflected and refracted through the multifarious perspectives of verbal art In his original wide ranging book David K Danow catches the various reflections in that mirror from the bright life affirming magical side of carnival as revealed in the literature of Latin American writers to its dark grotesque death embracing aspect as illustrated in numerous novels depicting the dire experience of the Second World War The remarkable meshing of these two diametrically opposed yet inextricably intertwined facets of literature and of life makes for an intriguing sphere of investigation for the carnival spirit is animated by a human need to dissolve borders and eliminate boundaries including symbolically those between life and death in an ongoing effort to merge opposing forces into new configurations of truth and meaning Expanding upon the seminal ideas of Mikhail Bakhtin carnival argues Danow is designed to allow one extreme to flow into another to provide for one polarity official culture to confront its opposite unofficial culture much as individuals engage in dialogue In this case the result is dialogized carnival or carnivalized dialogue In their artmaking Danow claims human beings are animated by a periodic predisposition toward the bright side of carnival matched by an equally strong far darker predilection Carnival forms of thinking are firmly embedded within the human psyche as archetypal patterns In this engaging exploratory book we are shown the distinctive imprint of these primordial structures within a multitude of seemingly disparate literary works   Report Iowa.
