Introductory reports and summary of the discussion European Conference of Ministers of Transport,1980-01-02 This book contains the introductory reports and dicussion summaries of the Eighth International Symposium on Theory and Practice in Transport Economics held in Istanbul 24 28 September 1979 and which focused on transport and the challenge of structural change The Birth of Orientalism Urs App,2011-06-06 Modern Orientalism is not a brainchild of nineteenth century European imperialists and colonialists but as Urs App demonstrates was born in the eighteenth century after a very long gestation period defined less by economic or political motives than by religious ideology Based on sources from a dozen languages many unavailable in English The Birth of Orientalism presents a completely new picture of this protracted genesis its underlying dynamics and the Western discovery of Asian religions from the sixteenth to the nineteenth century App documents the immense influence of Japan and China and describes how the Near Eastern cradle of civilization moved toward mother India Moreover he shows that some of India s purportedly oldest texts were products of eighteenth century European authors Though Western engagement with non Abrahamic Asian religions reaches back to antiquity and can without exaggeration be called the largest scale religiocultural encounter in history it has so far received surprisingly little attention which is why some of its major features and their role in the birth of modern Orientalism are described here for the first time The study of Asian documents had a profound impact on Europe s intellectual makeup Suddenly the Bible had much older competitors from China and India Sanskrit threatened to replace Hebrew as the world s oldest language and Judeo Christianity appeared as a local phenomenon on a dramatically expanded worldwide canvas of religions and mythologies Orientalists were called upon as arbiters in a clash that involved neither gold and spices nor colonialism and imperialism but rather such fundamental questions as where we come from and who we are questions of identity that demanded new answers as biblical authority dramatically waned Ethical Issues in Neurology James L. Bernat, 2008 Written by an eminent authority from the American Academy of Neurology s Committee on Ethics Law and Humanities this book is an excellent text for all clinicians interested in ethical decision making The book features outstanding presentations on dying and palliative care physician assisted suicide and voluntary active euthanasia medical futility and the relationship between ethics and the law New chapters in this edition discuss how clinicians resolve ethical dilemmas in practice and explore ethical issues in neuroscience research Other highlights include updated material on palliative sedation advance directives ICU withdrawal of life sustaining therapy gene therapy the very low birth weight premature infant the developmentally disabled patient informed consent organizational ethics brain death controversies and fMRI and PET studies relating to persistent vegetative state Weekly Weather Report , 1920 Operator Theory, Pseudo-Differential Equations, and Mathematical Physics Yuri I.
