THE BIG SOUL-BAND

JOHNNY GRIFFIN ORCHESTRA — ARRANGEMENTS BY NORMAN SIMMONS

The vibrant and large-scale sound heard here is one that achieves much of its dynamic and deeply-moving newness by reaching back to the roots and soul of jazz. It makes excitingly emotion-charged modern use of such fundamentals as spirituals, blues, and gospel-imbued jazz. This is also big music; the rich, burstingly full sound of brass and reed sections. For the very first time, a truly big-band sound has been dramatically merged with the soulful earthiness of the stirring new jazz of the 1960s — music that combines down-home funk with the aggressive surge of the big city.

This startling and unique album features the JOHNNY GRIFFIN ORCHESTRA in arrangements by NORMAN SIMMONS. It spotlights the amazingly full-throated tenor saxophone "preaching" of Johnny Griffin, playing as never before in front of the fervent, larger-than-life sounds built by Norman Simmons; a young arranger whose brilliant future begins right here.
