The Mistletoe Inn Richard Paul Evans, 2015-11-17 The second holiday love story in New York Times bestselling author Richard Paul Evans's Mistletoe Collection At thirty two Kimberly Rossi a finance officer at a Lexus car dealership has had her heart broken more times than she wants to remember With two failed engagements a divorce and again alone with no prospects she hardly seems the type to dream of being a published romance author Dreading another holiday alone she signs up for The Mistletoe Retreat a nine day writing retreat in Burlington Vermont Deep inside Kimberly knows she's at a junction in her life and it's time to either fulfill her dream or let it go The other reason she decides to attend the conference is because famed romance writer H T Cowell once the best selling romance writer in America and the author whose books instilled in her the desire to be a writer will be speaking in public for the first time in more than a decade In one of her breakout sessions Kimberly meets another aspiring writer and one of the few men at the conference Zeke an intelligent man with a wry wit who seems as interested in Kimberly as he is in the retreat As Kimberly begins to open up to him about her stories and dreams she inadvertently reveals her own troubled past As Zeke helps her to discover why her books fail to live up to their potential she begins to wonder if he's really talking more about her life than her literature But as she grows closer to him she realizes that Zeke has his own darkness a past he's unwilling to talk about The Mistletoe Inn reveals that like literature relationships must be lived with passion and vulnerability to succeed
