NIJ Awards in Fiscal Year ..., 1992 Special Labor Force Reports, 1960 New World Literacy Carlos Alberto González Sánchez, 2011-04-07 This book on the role of written and iconographic communication in the Atlantic World combines a broad outlook geographically and chronologically with the precise treatment of specific evidence extracted from the sources The author argues that diatribes against chivalric fiction and the Index of Prohibited Books did not prevent proscribed literature from circulating freely on both sides of the Atlantic On the contrary he notes such prohibitions may have increased the lure of certain books A description of the process of registering and inspecting ships in Seville and upon reaching their destinations highlights opportunities for contraband smuggling fraud and the corruption of officials entrusted with regulating the trade Within the prominent spiritual genre the author documents a shift from Erasmian to Tridentine thinking The registers analyzed also suggest the growing popularity of literary works by Cervantes Mateo Alem n and Lope de Vega It opens a fascinating window onto the book trade in the Americas Different forms of participation in this culture included the use of books as fetishes and the possession of printed devotional images The analysis of books as well as printed images supports larger contentions about their role as agents of evangelization and westernization This book certainly opens up new worlds on the impact of books and images in the Atlantic World Official Year Book of the Commonwealth of Australia No. 47 - 1961 , Transactions of the American Philosophical Society, 1966 The Huguenot Population of France, 1600-1685 Philip Benedict, 1991 This vol has been built upon all of the known parish register census evidence bearing upon the changing size of France s Huguenot population over the course of the period between the Edict of Nantes its Revocation specifically upon census figures or annual totals of baptisms for any Protestant church or community for which such evidence spans 40 or more years of the cent This national investigation is offered in the hope that it can help to stimulate more of the detailed local studies of individual Protestant communities of the relations between their members their Catholic neighbors that are needed to illuminate these variations as well as to highlight those regions where such studies might be particularly fruitful Charts tables Document Boston (Mass.), 1898 Finance Australia.
