Svay May Mayko Ebihara, 2018-02-15 May Mayko Ebihara 1934 2005 was the first American anthropologist to conduct ethnographic research in Cambodia Svay provides a remarkably detailed picture of individual villagers and of Khmer social structure and kinship agriculture politics and religion The world Ebihara described would soon be shattered by Pol Pot's Khmer Rouge Fifty percent of the villagers perished in the reign of terror including those who had been Ebihara's adoptive parents and grandparents during her fieldwork Never before published as a book Ebihara's dissertation served as the foundation for much of our subsequent understanding of Cambodian history society and politics Fundamental and Applied Aspects of Modern Physics Simon H. Connell, 2001 Annotation Nearly 50 contributions from international scientists discuss recent research in atomic nuclear elementary particle and astro physics in honor of Friedel Sellschop on his 70th birthday A sampling of topics includes chiral symmetry restoration in nuclei common features of particle multiplicities in heavy ion collisions and hydrogen mobility in diamond Three papers examine policy issues such as government support for scientific programs The volume is not indexed Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Hermeneutics, Authority, and Canon D. A. Carson, John Woodbridge, 2005-03-09 Among the many recent discussions of the nature and authority of Scripture I would judge this to be one of the most valuable Particularly in those essays that deal with the actual phenomena of the text of Scripture it displays a level of sophistication and of sympathetic awareness of alternative views that has too often been lacking In contrast to the backs to the wall tone of some conservative defenses of inerrancy these authors write for the most part with the confidence of those who have a coherent and well grounded position to offer The volume will I believe both help to commend Evangelical doctrine to those who suspect it of blind obscurantism and also contribute significantly to mutual understanding among Evangelicals who are too ready to polarize over their different assessments of what it means to honor Scripture as the Word of God R T France Vice Principal London Bible College These thought minded essays are the channel through which conservative scholars must steer for competent interaction with current critical theories for helpful direction in focusing the battle over Scripture and for reflection of conflict areas that Evangelicals must themselves resolve This work rises above the shallow shadow boxing over inerrancy and engages central concerns with academic ability and dignity It puts on the agenda issues that Evangelical leaders must now wrestle Does the Bible contain different kinds of truth Is all divine revelation rational Is the canon really post apostolic No reader will agree with all that is said some will loudly disagree here and there But all students will be stimulated and serious readers edified at the frontiers of current debate Carl F H Henry Lecturer at Large World Vision Philippine Ethnography Shiro Saito, 2019-09-30 This volume is a comprehensive listing of reference sources for Philippine ethnology excluding physical anthropology and de-emphasizing folklore and linguistics It is published as part of the East West Bibliographic Series This listing includes books journal articles mimeographed papers and official publications selected on the basis of the ratings of sixty two Philippine specialists Several titles were added to fill the need for material in certain areas Literacy and Historical Development Graff, Harvey J, 2007 Representing three decades of research Literacy and Historical Development A Reader presents some of the most important historical scholarship on literacy in Europe and the United States The approaches research and conclusions reflected in this collection of fifteen essays has changed how historians and many others conceptualize literacy and represents a body of scholarship that is transforming both contemporary and historical literacy theories In this revised and expanded edition of the groundbreaking volume Literacy and Social Development in the West editor Harvey J Graff provides a new introduction and nine new essays by nationally and internationally renowned contributors from a range of disciplines Replacing an unquestioned certainty that literacy's powers are universal independent and determinative Graff brings together studies that support new concepts contending that the importance and influences of literacy depend on specific social and historical contexts the impacts of literacy are mediated and restricted the effects of literacy are social and particular and the role of literacy must be understood within the burgeoning array of communication technologies Who Is the Church? Cheryl M. Peterson, 2013-05-01 Many congregations today focus on strategy and purpose what churches do but Cheryl Peterson submits that mainline churches need to focus instead on what or who they are to reclaim a theological rather than sociological understanding of themselves Peterson suggests that we understand the church as a people created by the Spirit to be a community and that we must claim a narrative method to explore the church's identity specifically the story of the church's origin in the Acts of the Apostles Finally here is a way of thinking of church that reconciles the best of competing models of church for the future of mainline Protestant theology A Summary of Knowledge of the Southern California Coastal Zone and Offshore Areas: Social and economic elements Southern California Ocean Studies Consortium, 1974 The Formation of the Child in Early Modern Spain Grace E. Coolidge, 2016-03-16 Drawing on history literature and art to explore childhood in early modern Spain the contributors to this collection argue that early modern Spaniards conceptualized childhood as a distinct and discrete stage in life which necessitated special care and concern The volume contrasts the didactic use of art and literature with historical accounts of actual children and analyzes children in a wide range of contexts including the royal court the noble family and orphanages The volume explores several interrelated questions that challenge both scholars of Spain and scholars specializing in childhood How did early modern Spaniards perceive childhood In what framework literary artistic did they think about their children and how did they visualize those children's roles within the family and society How do gender and literary genres intersect with this concept of childhood How did ideas about childhood shape parenting parents and adult life in early modern Spain How did theories about children and childhood interact with the actual experiences of children and their parents The group of international scholars contributing to this book have developed a variety of creative interdisciplinary approaches to uncover children's lives the role of children within the larger family adult perceptions of childhood images of children and childhood in art and literature and the ways in

Watson, 2013-12-31 In 2008 140 years after it had annexed Ainu lands the Japanese government shocked observers by finally recognizing Ainu as an Indigenous people In this moment of unparalleled political change it was Uzawa Kanako a young Ainu activist who signalled the necessity of moving beyond the historical legacy of Ainu studies Mired in a colonial mindset of abject academic practices Ainu Studies was an umbrella term for an approach that claimed scientific authority vis vis Ainu who became its research objects As a result of this legacy a latent sense of suspicion still hangs over the purposes and intentions of non Ainu researchers This major new volume seeks to re address the role of academic scholarship in Ainu social cultural and political affairs Placing Ainu firmly into current debates over Indigeneity Beyond Ainu Studies provides a broad yet critical overview of the history and current status of Ainu research With chapters from scholars as well as Ainu activists and artists it addresses a range of topics including history ethnography linguistics tourism legal mobilization hunter gatherer studies the Ainu diaspora gender and clothwork In its ambition to reframe the question of Ainu research in light of political reforms that are transforming Ainu society today this book will be of interest to scholars and students in Indigenous studies as well as in anthropology and Asian studies Contributors Misa Adele Honde David L Howell Mark J Hudson Deriha Kji Ann-Elise Lewallen Tessa Morris Suzuki Hans Dieter Ischleger Kirsten Refsing Georgina Stevens Sunazawa Kayo Tsuda Nobuko Uzawa Kanako Mark K Watson Yki Kji General Technical Report PNW. , 1978 Entangled Histories of the Balkans - Volume Two Roumen Daskalov, Diana Mishkova, 2013-11-14 Modern Balkan history has traditionally been studied by national historians in terms of separate national histories taking place within bounded state territories The authors in this volume take a different approach They all seek to treat the modern history of the region from a transnational and relational perspective in terms of shared and connected as well as entangled histories transfers and crossings This goes along with an interest in the way ideas institutions and techniques were selected transferred and adapted to Balkan conditions and how they interacted with those conditions resulting in mixtures and hybridization The volume also invites reflection on the interacting entities in the very process of their creation and consecutive transformations rather than taking them as givens Contributors include Diana Mishkova Alexander Vezhenkov Constantin Iordachi Roumen Daskalov Tchavdar Marinov Blagovest Njagulov The Sixties in Canada M.
