In Search of Another Country Joseph Crespino,2021-07-13 In the 1960s Mississippi was the heart of white southern resistance to the civil rights movement To many it was a backward looking society of racist authoritarianism and violence that was sorely out of step with modern liberal America White Mississippians however had a different vision of themselves and their country one so persuasive that by 1980 they had become important players in Ronald Reagan s newly ascendant Republican Party In this ambitious reassessment of racial politics in the deep South Joseph Crespino reveals how Mississippi leaders strategically accommodated themselves to the demands of civil rights activists and the federal government seeking to end Jim Crow and in so doing contributed to a vibrant conservative countermovement Crespino explains how white Mississippians linked their fight to preserve Jim Crow with other conservative causes with evangelical Christians worried about liberalism infecting their churches with cold warriors concerned about the Communist threat and with parents worried about where and with whom their children were schooled Crespino reveals important divisions among Mississippi whites offering the most nuanced portrayal yet of how conservative southerners bridged the gap between the politics of Jim Crow and that of the modern Republican South This book lends new insight into how white Mississippians gave rise to a broad popular reaction against modern liberalism that recast American politics in the closing decades of the twentieth century

Subcommittee on Military Personnel,1976 Jung on Synchronicity and Yijing Young Woon Ko,2011-01-18 Jung s understanding of Yijing for supporting the synchronistic principle reveals the key issues of his archetypal theory Jung s archetypal theory which is the basic motif of his understanding of Yijing illuminates the religious significance of Yijing Jung defines the human experience of the divine as an archetypal process by way of which the unconscious conveys the human religious experience In this way the divine and the unconscious mind are inseparable from each other For the human experience of the divine Jung s archetypal theory developed in a theistic tradition is encountered with the religious character of the non theistic tradition of Yijing From Jung s partial adaptation of Yijing however we notice the differences between Jung s archetypal psychology and the Yijing cosmological view This difference represents the difference between the Western and the East Asian tradition This aspect is well shown in the fact that Jung s theoretical assumption for the definition of archetype is deeply associated with Plato s Idea and the Kantian a priori category Accordingly Jung brings their timeless spaceless realm of archetype into the synchronistic phenomenon of the psyche and identifies the Yijing text with the readable archetype Yet the synchronistic moment that Jung presents is the phenomenon always involved in subjective experience and intuition which are developed in the duration of time The synchronistic phenomenon is not transcendent or the objective flowing of time in itself regardless of our subjective experience
