Mama's Boy Roel van den Oever,2012-09-24 In postwar America the discourse of Momism advanced the idea that an over affectionate or too distant mother hampers the social and psychosexual development of her children in particular her sons Deemed worst of all was the outcome of homosexuality since the period saw an intense policing of sexual deviance van den Oever zooms in on four instances of the cultural representation of Momism The Grotto by Grace Zaring Stone Suddenly Last Summer by Tennessee Williams Alfred Hitchcock's Psycho and Portnoy's Complaint by Philip Roth to offer new commentary on canonical texts a particular moment in American culture and future reading strategies Archivum Ottomanicum ,2002

Before and After Gender: Sexual Mythologies of Everyday Life Marilyn Strathern,2016-01-01 Written in the early 1970s amidst widespread debate over the causes of gender inequality Marilyn Strathern's Before and After Gender was intended as a widely accessible analysis of gender as a powerful cultural code and sex as a defining mythology But when the series for which it was written unexpectedly folded the manuscript went into storage where it remained for more than four decades This book finally brings it to light giving the long lost feminist work accompanied here by an afterword from Judith Butler an overdue spot in feminist history Strathern incisively engages some of the leading feminist thinkers of the time including Shulamith Firestone Simone de Beauvoir Ann Oakley and Kate Millett Building with characteristic precision toward a bold conclusion in which she argues that we underestimate the materializing grammars of sex and gender at our own peril she offers a powerful challenge to the intransigent mythologies of sex that still plague contemporary society The result is a sweeping display of Strathern's vivid critical thought and an important contribution to feminist studies that has gone unpublished for far too long Caring for Mom and Dad Susan Stein-Roggenbuck,2023-10-05 Explores the programs and policies dependent parents navigated when their own financial resources did not provide adequate support encounter in its global context Part II offers a comprehensive and critical analysis of the actual encounter Part III draws on aspects of the Christian tradition as it critically examines the ways in which the dialog has been justified in Christological categories A final chapter discusses the future of the encounter Unlike many other works in the area of interfaith studies this work combines both descriptive detail of the actual encounter and critical theological analysis of the strengths and weakness of the dialog model

Representations John Bennet, 2021-08-30 This volume presents a series of reflections on modes of communication in the Bronze Age Aegean drawing on papers presented at two round table workshops of the Sheffield Centre for Aegean Archaeology on Technologies of Representation and Writing and Non Writing in the Bronze Age Aegean Each was designed to capture current developments in these interrelated research areas and also to help elide boundaries between science based and humanities based approaches and between those focused on written communication especially its content and those interested in broader modes of communication Contributions are arranged thematically in three groups the first concerns primarily non written communication the second mainly written communication and the third blurs this somewhat arbitrary distinction Topics in the first group include use of color in wall paintings at Late Bronze Age Pylos a re interpretation of the Harvester Vase from Ayia Triada re readings of the sequence of grave stelae at Mycenae of Aegean representations of warfare and of how ritual architecture is represented in the Knossos wall paintings and the use of painted media to represent depictions in other lost media such as cloth Topics in the second group range from defining Aegean writing itself through the contexts for literacy and how the Linear B script represented language to a historical exploration of early attempts at deciphering Linear B In the third group Linear B texts and archaeological data are used to explore how people were represented diacritically through taste and smell and how different qualities of time were expressed both textually and materially the roles of images in Aegean scripts complemented by a Peircian analysis of early Cretan writing a consideration of the complementary role of non literate sealing and literate writing practices and concludes with a further exploration of the color palette used at Pylos

Saint Bonaventure Jacques Guy Bougerol, 2024-10-31 In the history of Christian thought St Bonaventure stands out as the pre eminent Franciscan philosopher of the 13th century and as a key figure in the development of the spiritual theology of the Church The four studies which constitute this volume present detailed investigations into some of the principal sources from which Bonaventure drew his inspiration from Antiquity through to St Bernard in the century before his own Proceeding from a careful analysis of the quotations he makes from these sources the studies make clear the precise extent and nature of their importance in Bonaventure's own thought and the manner in which he selected ideas and used them to serve his own purposes The first two pieces focus on the influence exerted by the Pseudo Dionysius in particular as concerns his notion of hierarchy this became a central and fertile theme in the work of the Franciscan Father Bougerol shows how Bonaventure interpreted and developed it in the process transforming it into a meditation on the relationship between man and God This emphasis also emerges in the third study on his attitude towards Aristotle which demonstrates Bonaventure's deliberate progress towards the elaboration of his spiritual theology
