North and South Vietnamese youths had very different experiences of growing up during the Vietnamese War The book gives a unique perspective on the conflict through the prism of adult youth relations By studying these relations including educational systems social organizations and texts created by and for children during the war Olga Dror analyzes how the two societies dealt with their wartime experience and strove to shape their futures She examines the socialization and politicization of Vietnamese children and teenagers contrasting the North s highly centralized agenda of indoctrination with the South which had no such policy and explores the results of these varied approaches By considering the influence of Western culture on the youth of the South and of socialist culture on the youth of the North we learn how the youth cultures of both Vietnams diverged from their prewar paths and from each other The Emu ,1981 100 Years of South Dakota Agriculture, 1900-1999 ,2000
