society A final essay asks readers to reassess the long standing revisionist emphasis on slave agency and the ideological burdens it carries with it Essays in the final section discuss scholarship on comparative slavery contrasting American slavery with similar less restrictive practices in Brazil and North Africa One essay negotiates a complicated tripartite comparison of secession in the United States Brazil and Cuba while another uncovers subtle differences in slavery in separate regions of the American South demonstrating that comparative slavery studies need not be transnational New Directions in Slavery Studies provides new examinations of the lives and histories of enslaved people in the United States Minutes of the General Conference of the Congregational Churches of Connecticut at the ...
