Diversity, Fear and Religions Gennaro Gervasio, Maria Chiara Giorda, Paola Perucchini, 2025-07-30 This book investigates ways the Other can be both a cause of and an answer to religious and cultural fears The multi layered question of cultural and religious diversity has received some attention recently both in academic and policy circles The authors of this work address this issue by focusing on fears and phobias and the ways they are historically and sociologically produced and reproduced in a Global Era The volume presents examples of fears related to different cultures and religions from a multidisciplinary perspective Some of these have been provoked or sublimated by religious fundamentalisms and a double ignorance that is ignorance of and about fundamentalisms which have helped feed these collective concerns Through a sample of stereotypes mystifications and simplifications the authors look at Islam as a focal lens for showing the current power of globalized collective fears The collection also explores possible cultural antidotes to these phobias such as the need for awareness and familiarity with diversities based on an education accepting of interculturality and plural citizenship The book will be essential reading for academics researchers and policy makers working in the areas of Intercultural Pedagogy History Anthropology and Sociology of Religions Law and Religion Contemporary Islam Migration Studies Interreligious Dialogue and Ethnography

Settler Memory Kevin Bruyneel, 2021-10-20 Faint traces of Indigenous people and their histories abound in American media memory and myths Indigeneity often remains absent or invisible however especially in contemporary political and intellectual discourse about white supremacy anti Blackness and racism in general In this ambitious new book Kevin Bruyneel confronts the chronic displacement of Indigeneity in the politics and discourse around race in American political theory and culture arguing that the ongoing influence of settler colonialism has undermined efforts to understand Indigenous politics while also hindering conversation around race itself By reexamining major episodes texts writers and memories of the political past from the seventeenth century to the present Bruyneel reveals the power of settler memory at work in the persistent disavowal of Indigeneity He also shows how Indigenous and Black intellectuals have understood ties between racism and white settler memory even as the settler dimensions of whiteness are frequently erased in our discourse about race whether in conflicts over Indian mascots or the white nationalist underpinnings of Trumpism Envisioning a new political future Bruyneel challenges readers to refuse settler memory and consider a third reconstruction that can meaningfully link antiracism and anticolonialism

Towards a Collaborative Memory Sara Jones, 2022-08-12 Focusing on the memory of the German Democratic Republic Towards a Collaborative Memory explores the cross border collaborations of three German institutions Using an innovative theoretical and methodological framework drawing on relational sociology network analysis and narrative the study highlights the epistemic coloniality that has underpinned global partnerships across European actors and institutions Sara Jones reconceptualizes transnational memory towards an approach that is collaborative not only in its practices but also in its ethics and shows how these institutions position themselves within dominant relationship cultures reflected between East and West and North and South ¿RESCATAR LA ILUSTRACIÓN? Nikita Dhawan,2024-09-30 Esa es la pregunta fundamental de este libro audaz y provocador en el que Nikita Dhawan explora la intersección entre las teorías feministas queer poscoloniales y las ideas fundamentales de la Ilustración. Para ello la autora reconstruye algunas conversaciones inconclusas entre las corrientes filosóficas europeas y las teorías críticas contemporáneas que exceden lo que se denominó Teoría Crítica. A través de una exhaustiva revisión del legado ilustrado europeo que abarca desde Immanuel Kant hasta figuras clave como Theodor W Adorno, Gayatri Spivak, Michel Foucault, Achille Mbembe o Judith Butler entre muchos otros, Dhawan aborda y pone en cuestión las complejidades y contradicciones inherentes a los proyectos de la modernidad y de la pretendida emancipación. Su obra apunta a repensar principios normativos como los derechos humanos, la democracia, la justicia, la relación de los movimientos sociales con el Estado, etc., al tiempo que subraya algunos de sus costos históricos que derivaron en las desigualdades y opresiones que enfrentamos en la actualidad. El prólogo de Verónica Gago además permite contextualizar desde América Latina las principales propuestas de este libro desde el que Dhawan nos invita a reconsiderar el valor de las ideas ilustradas en un contexto global desafiante. Dirigido por igual a estudiantes académicos y activistas interesados en las tensiones entre teorías críticas y justicia global, esta obra es esencial para repensar el futuro de los movimientos sociales, los derechos humanos y la política internacional en el siglo XXI.

Tourism and Memory Doreen Pastor,2021-11-23 This book considers tourism to memorial sites from a visitor's point of view, challenging established theories in tourism and memory studies by critically appraising Germany's often celebrated memory culture. Based on visitor observations and exit interviews, this book examines how domestic and international visitors negotiate their visits to the concentration camp memorials Ravensbrück and Flossenbürg, the House of the Wannsee Conference, and the former Stasi prison Bautzen II. It argues that memorial sites are melting pots where family, national, and global narratives meet. For German visitors, the visit to memorial sites is a confrontation with Germany's responsibility for the two dictatorships, while for international visitors, it can be a form of seeing is believing. Ultimately, it is the immediacy of the space that is the most important part of the visit. Rooted in an interdisciplinary approach, this book will be of interest to academics and students in German Studies, Tourism and Heritage Studies, Museum Studies, Public History, and Memory Studies.

Act of 1935 ,1990 Victimhood Nationalism Jie-Hyun Lim,2025-04-01 Nationalism today depends on the perception of victimhood. The historical memory of past suffering endows nationalist movements with political legitimacy and a sense of moral superiority. Koreans recall Japanese colonial atrocities while Japan commemorates the atomic bombings of Hiroshima.

and Nagasaki Israel sanctifies the Holocaust and Poland trumpets the Nazi and Soviet occupations Even Germany and Russia perpetrators of historical crimes today cast themselves as victims by pointing to national suffering In this theoretically sophisticated and empirically rich book Jie Hyun Lim offers a new way to understand nationalism and its political instrumentalization of suffering developing the concept of victimhood nationalism and exploring it in a range of global settings He examines relations among Poland Germany Israel Korea and Japan focusing on how memories of colonialism the Holocaust and Stalinist terror have converged and intertwined in transnational spaces With an emphasis on memory formation Lim scrutinizes how perpetrators in Germany and Japan transformed themselves into victims as well as how nationalists in Poland Korea and Israel portray themselves as hereditary victims in order to rebut external criticism He considers the construction of nations as victims and perpetrators tracing the interaction of history and memory Ultimately the book contends challenging victimhood nationalism is necessary to overcome the endless competition over national suffering and instead promote reconciliation mutual understanding and transnational solidarity

Official Summary of Security Transactions and Holdings United States. Securities and Exchange Commission,1990-04 Postsocialist Memory in Contemporary German Culture Michel Mallet,Maria Mayr,Kristin Rebien,2024-08-06 Scholarship on Eastern Europe after 1989 often focuses narrowly on the socialist past as authoritarian dictatorial or totalitarian This collection by contrast illuminates an additional dimension of post socialist memory it traces the survival of hopes and dreams born under socialism and the legacy of the unrealized alternative futures embedded within the socialist past Looking at contemporary German language literature film theater and art the volume analyzes reflections on everyday socialist realities as well as narratives of opposition and dissent The texts discussed here not only revisit the past but also challenge the present and help us imagine alternative futures Rather than framing the unrealized futures envisioned in the pre 1989 era as failures this collection probes post socialist memory for its future oriented potential to rethink issues of community equity and equality and late stage capitalism Foregrounding the complexities of Eastern European legacies also helps us reimagine the relationship between East and West both in Germany and in Europe as a whole
