George P. Marsh Correspondence George Perkins Marsh, Lucia Ducci, 2012 He applied science to life not with the disinterested precision of a scientist but with the aims and methods of a humanist After 1861 he represented the United States at the Court of Savoy in the critical years in which Italy was built and the United States reshaped along modern lines From his perspective he described prominent Italian contemporaries and their relations with the United States and his opinion could not be ignored by the Department of State The hero of the Marsh reports was Giuseppe Garibaldi the devil Napoleon III His luminous exposition with a clear and fresh language revealed many aspects of his historical times and of the images of Italy which were frequently corroborated by the diaries of American tourists and writers doing their Grand Tour far from being a modern country Italy appeared a wonderful destination for traveling the land of Dante Machiavelli Petrarca
