National Drug Code Directory ,1980 Agricultural Prices ,1950 The Business of Transition Paris Papamichos Chronakis,2024-10-22 The Business of Transition examines how the cosmopolitan bourgeoisie of the Eastern Mediterranean navigated the transition from empire to nation state in the early twentieth century In this social and cultural history Paris Papamichos Chronakis shows how the Jewish and Greek merchants of Salonica present day Thessaloniki skillfully managed the tumultuous shift from Ottoman to Greek rule amidst revolution and war rising ethnic tensions and heightened class conflict Bringing their once powerful voices back into the historical narrative he traces their entangled trajectories as businessmen community members and civic leaders to illustrate how the self reinvention of a Jewish led bourgeoisie made a city Greek Papamichos Chronakis draws on previously untapped local archival material to weave a rich narrative of individual portraits introducing us to revered philanthropists and committed patriots as well as vilified profiteers and victimized Salonicans Offering a kaleidoscopic view of a city in transition this book reveals how the collapse of empire shook all the constitutive elements of Jewish and Greek identities and how Jews and Greeks reinvented themselves amidst these larger political and economic disruptions Western capitalism in transition Alberta Andreotti,David Benassi,Yuri Kazepov,2018-02-12 Since its emergence at the end of the seventeenth century industrial capitalism as a specific form of social organisation has set recurrent challenges to its own persistence and until today it has proved to be successful to develop new ways of accumulation based on its capacity of adaptation Is this process of transition now accelerating or reaching an end point This book is a critical exploration of capitalism in transition bringing together cutting edge world renowned scholars who reflect from different disciplinary points of view This collection engages with the primarily Western themes of welfare capitalism and social fragmentation Structured over three parts the book analyses the transformations of welfare societies and capitalism with a focus on South European welfare states and their in capacity to tackle poverty the transformation of work and migration with a special attention to informality and the question of social rights and the transformation of cities The Philadelphia Campaign Thomas J. McGuire,2007-05-21 Based on soldiers and civilians vivid accounts many uncovered for the first time from private collections the story of the compelling fight for independence reaches its most desperate moments This second in a two volume set follows the saga from Cornwallis s triumphal march of his British and Hessian troops into Philadelphia in late September to Washington s movement of the weary Continental forces to camp at Valley Forge in December Defeated at Brandywine the Continental forces were worn out and ill equipped Yet on October 4 Washington embarked on his first major offensive of the war a surprise attack at dawn on Howe s main camp at Germantown Only narrowly defeated the Continentals gained valuable experience and new confidence in the possibility of victory The siege of the Delaware River forts one of the bloodiest and prolonged battles of the war ended with British success in mid November but still Howe failed to end the war He tried unsuccessfully to draw Washington from the fortified hills of Whitemarsh As the Continental forces moved to Valley Forge for the winter they would have to face their greatest challenge survival Register of Merit of Jersey Cattle American Jersey Cattle Club,1922 The Arena of Satire David H. J. Larmour,2016-01-04 In this first comprehensive reading of Juvenal s satires in more than fifty years David H J Larmour deftly revises and sharpens our understanding of the second century Roman writer who stands as the archetype for all later practitioners of the satirist s art The enduring attraction of Juvenal s satires is twofold they not only introduce the character of the angry satirist but also offer vivid descriptions of everyday life in Rome at the height of the Empire In Larmour s interpretation these two elements are inextricably linked The Arena of Satire presents the satirist as flaneur traversing the streets of Rome in search of its authentic core those distinctly Roman virtues that have disappeared amid the corruption of the age What the vengeful punishing satirist does to his victims as Larmour shows echoes what the Roman state did to outcasts and criminals in the arena of the Colosseum The fact that the arena was the most prominent building in the city and is mentioned frequently by Juvenal makes it an ideal lens through which to examine the spectacular and punishing characteristics of Roman satire And the fact that Juvenal undertakes his search for the uncorrupted authentic Rome within the very buildings and landmarks that make up the actual corrupt Rome of his day gives his sixteen satires their uniquely paradoxical and contradictory nature Larmour s exploration of the arena of satire guides us through Juvenal s search for the true Rome winding from one poem to the next He combines close readings of passages from individual satires with discussions of Juvenal s representation of Roman space and topography the nature of the arena experience and the network of connections among the satirist the gladiator and the editor or producer of Colosseum entertainments The Arena of Satire also offers a new definition of Juvenalian satire as a particular form arising from the intersection of the body and the urban landscape a form whose defining features survive in the works of several later satirists from Jonathan Swift and Evelyn Waugh to contemporary writers such as Russian novelist Victor Pelevin and Irish dramatist Martin McDonagh Adapting to EU Multi-Level Governance Panagiotis Getimis,2016-12-05 The main theme of this book is the adaptation process of the new EU member states from Central Eastern Europe Hungary and Poland to the multi level system of governance in public policy particularly in the regional and environmental policy areas The work conceptualizes policy learning and institutional and policy adaptation within the EU system of governance and draws lessons from the experience of previous waves of enlargement cohesion countries Ireland Portugal and Greece In doing so the book makes an important contribution to the literature on the transformation of domestic policy making structures as a result of the increasing Europeanization of public policy as well as on the conceptual tools explanatory variables and mechanisms determining this process State, Labor, and the Transition to a Market Economy Agnieszka Paczyńska,2015-10-29 In response to mounting debt crises and macroeconomic instability in the 1980s many countries in the developing world adopted neoliberal policies promoting the unfettered play of market forces and deregulation of the economy and attempted large scale structural adjustment including the privatization of public sector industries How much influence did various societal groups have on this transition to a market economy and what explains the variances in interest group influence across countries In this book Agnieszka Paczyńska explores these questions by studying the role of organized labor in the transition process in four countries in different regions the Czech Republic and Poland in eastern Europe Egypt in the Middle East and Mexico in Latin America In Egypt and Poland she shows labor had substantial influence on the process whereas in the Czech Republic and Mexico it did not Her explanation highlights the complex relationship between institutional structures and the critical junctures provided by economic crises revealing that the ability of groups like organized labor to wield influence on reform efforts depends to a great extent on not only their current resources such as financial autonomy and legal prerogatives but also the historical legacies of their past ties to the state

A Critical Political Economy of the Middle East and North Africa Joel Beinin, Bassam Haddad, Sherene Seikaly, 2020-12-22 This book offers the first critical engagement with the political economy of the Middle East and North Africa Challenging conventional wisdom on the origins and contemporary dynamics of capitalism in the region these cutting edge essays demonstrate how critical political economy can illuminate both historical and contemporary dynamics of the region and contribute to wider political economy debates from the vantage point of the Middle East Leading scholars representing several disciplines contribute both thematic and country specific analyses Their writings critically examine major issues in political economy notably the mutual constitution of states markets and classes the co constitution of class race gender and other forms of identity varying modes of capital accumulation and the legal political and cultural forms of their regulation relations among local national and global forms of capital class and culture technopolitics the role of war in the constitution of states and classes and practices and cultures of domination and resistance Visit politicaleconomyproject.org for additional media and learning resources

Planet Palm Jocelyn C. Zuckerman, 2021-05-25 Finalist Helen Bernstein Book Award for Excellence in Journalism In the tradition of Eric Schlosser's Fast Food Nation a groundbreaking global investigation into the industry ravaging the environment and global health from the James Beard Award winning journalist Over the past few decades palm oil has seeped into every corner of our lives Worldwide palm oil production has nearly doubled in just the last decade oil palm plantations now cover an area nearly the size of New Zealand and some form of the commodity lurks in half the products on U S grocery shelves But the palm oil revolution has been built on stolen land and slave labor it's swept away cultures and so devastated the landscapes of Southeast Asia that iconic animals now teeter on the brink of extinction Fires lit to clear the way for plantations spew carbon emissions to rival those of industrialized nations James Beard Award winning journalist Jocelyn C Zuckerman spent years traveling the globe from Liberia to Indonesia India to Brazil reporting on the human and environmental impacts of this poorly understood plant The result is Planet Palm a riveting account blending history science politics and food as seen through the people whose lives have been upended by this hidden ingredient This groundbreaking work of first rate journalism compels us to examine the connections between the choices we make at the grocery store and a planet under siege Monthly Summary of Commerce and Finance of the United States United States. Department of Commerce and Labor. Bureau of Statistics, 1905 Wisdom and Chivalry Stephen Henry Rigby, 2009 The Knight's Tale is one of the most controversial of all the Canterbury Tales Does Chaucer portray Theseus the duke of Athens whose actions dominate the tale as an ideal ruler one who is noble wise and chivalrous or does the duke's behaviour reveal him to be immoral self seeking and tyrannical This book assesses the duke's conduct and thought in terms of the ideals set out in medieval mirrors for princes particularly in Giles of Rome's De Regimine Principum It argues that when judged by the standards of these works Theseus can be seen as a model prince in terms of his self government ethics his rule of his household economics his governance of his realm politics and his cosmography and philosophy The Condor, 1943 Forging Islamic Power and Place Francis R. Bradley, 2015-07-31 Forging Islamic Power and Place charts the nineteenth century rise of a vast network of Islamic scholars stretching across Southeast Asia and the Indian Ocean to Arabia Following the political and military collapse of the tiny Sultanate of Patani in what is now southern Thailand and northern Malaysia a displaced community of scholars led by Shaykh D d bin Abd All h al Fa n regrouped in Mecca In the years that followed al Fa n composed more than forty works that came to form the basis for a new text based type of Islamic practice Via a network of scholars students and scribes al Fa n's writings made their way back to Southeast Asia becoming the core texts of emerging pondok Islamic schools throughout the region Islamic scholars thus came to be the primary power brokers in the construction of a new moral community setting forth an intellectual wave that spurred cultural identity literacy and a religious practice that grew ever more central to daily life In Forging Islamic Power and Place Francis R Bradley analyzes the important role of this vibrant Patani knowledge network in the formation of Islamic institutions of learning in Southeast Asia He makes use of an impressive range of sources including official colonial documents traveler accounts missionary writings and above all a trove of handwritten manuscripts in Malay and Arabic what remains of one of the most fertile zones of knowledge production anywhere in the Islamic world at the time Writing against prevailing notions of Southeast Asia as the passive recipient of the Islamic traditions of the Middle East Bradley shows how a politically marginalized community engineered its own cultural renaissance via the moral virility of the Islamic scholarly tradition and the power of the written word He highlights how in an age of rising colonial power these knowledge producers moved largely unnoticed and unhindered between Southeast Asia and the Middle East carrying out sweeping cultural and religious change His focus on Thailand's so called deep south which has been marginalized in scholarly studies until recent times helps lay the groundwork for a new generation of scholarship on the region and furthers our understanding of the present day crisis in southern Thailand The study of Islam in Southeast Asia has been most often relegated to the realm of religious studies and historians have considered the development of the nation as the single most important historiographical problem in the region By focusing on the role of human agency and the logistics of knowledge transmission this book transforms our understanding of the long and complex history of the flow of religious knowledge between the Middle East and Southeast Asia

The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 5, The Islamic World in the Age of Western Dominance Francis Robinson, 2010-11-04 Volume 5 of The New Cambridge History of Islam examines the history of Muslim societies from 1800 to the present Francis Robinson a leading historian of Islam has brought together a team of scholars with a broad range of expertise to explore how Muslims responded to the challenges of Western conquest and domination across the last two hundred years As their articles reveal the social economic political and historical circumstances which influenced these responses have in many different parts of the world empowered Muslim societies and encouraged transformation and religious revival The volume offers a fascinating glimpse into the local dimensions of that revival and how regional connections have been forged Synthesising the academic research of the past thirty years as well as offering substantial guidance for further study this book is the starting point for all those who wish to have a serious understanding of modern Muslim societies
