Capinha,2020-10-14 Risk analysis risk evaluation and risk management are the three core areas in the process known as Risk Assessment Risk assessment corresponds to the joint effort of identifying and analysing potential future events and evaluating the acceptability of risk based on the risk analysis while considering influencing factors In short risk assessment analyses what can go wrong how likely it is to happen and if it happens what are the potential consequences Since risk is a multi disciplinary domain this book gathers contributions covering a wide spectrum of topics with regard to their theoretical background and field of application The work is organized in the three core areas of risk assessment      Umleavyo Mary Ntukula,Rita Liljeström,2004 Umleavyo The Dilemma of Parents is composed of studies on the gap between the generations and how this gap has widened over the past century The past serves as the seemingly stable background on which to project currently fluid and ambiguous parent child relationships The focus of the studies is often on the different methods and goals for bringing up the next generation These range from physical punishment to achieving compliance through fear and reference to supernatural forces to initiation ceremonies that provide multiple precautions and timely instruction on marriage and procreation to the emphasis on relations between people as the most crucial experiences and to the encouragement of a sense personal responsibility This volume is based on the narratives of the grandparents parents and youths in the villages of the Pare people in the north and of the initiation leaders in Songea in the south and on a comparison of the opinions of elders and youths about gender issues among the Nyakyusa The unwillingness of parents to talk about a topic so delicate that they cannot find the right words is confronted Parents are handicapped in their efforts to discuss sexual matters with their children by a lack of terms that are sufficiently clear without being crude Part of the parents dilemma arises from societal conditions they cannot control For a long time individualisation has been understood as a response to hitherto unknown opportunities opened up by education science and technology Currently there are two main branches of individualism one involving those who have been able to emancipate themselves and reap some of the benefits of modernisation and another for those for whom the modern economies have no use surplus people individualised by force poverty and eroding social bonds How should one support youths for whom there is no clear passage to full adulthood How can one forge links between the plight of families and issues of citizenship and public action These are some of the questions raised in this book 田中重雄: 田中重雄,1976 田中重雄 Japan. 田中重雄. 田中重雄,1976 Re-thinking Sexualities in Africa Signe Arnfred,2004 This volume sets out to investigate critically existing lines of thought about sexuality in Africa while also creating space for alternative approaches P 4 of cover Breast Feeding and Sexuality Mara Mabilia,2006-10-01 Whereas in western countries breastfeeding is an uncontroversial purely personal issue in most parts of the world mother and baby form part of a network of interpersonal relations with its own rules and expectations In this study the author examines the cultural and social context of breastfeeding among the Gogo women of the Cigongwe s village in Tanzania as part of the Paediatric Programme of Doctors with Africa based in Padua The focus is on mothers behaviour and post partum taboos as key elements in Gogo understanding of the vicissitudes of the breast feeding process This nutritional period is subject to many different events both physical and social that may upset the natural and intense link between mother and child Any violation of cultural norms particularly those dealing with sexual behaviour marriage and reproduction can in the eyes of the Gogo put at risk the correct development of an infant with serious consequences both for the baby s health as well as for the woman s image as mother and wife 田中重雄,1965 Social Change and Health in Tanzania Kris Heggenhougen,Joe Lugalla,2005 Africa is experiencing dramatic processes of social change with evident consequences for health This collection of papers examines the impacts of modern developments on health in Tanzania with a view to establishing patterns at a continental level The contributors consider how social change is impacting on young people s health HIV AIDS and mental health It further considers the implications of poverty and social inequalities for health concluding that the poorest suffer the adverse health effects of social change disproportionately and that the effects of globalisation if unchecked left herald severe consequences for the health of poor countries Handbook of Studies on Men and Masculinities Michael S. Kimmel,Jeff Hearn,Raewyn Connell,2005 In the past research in the field of gender has mainly addressed issues about women and has for the most part been developed by women Recently the study of gender has rapidly expanded and there has been a growing interest in men s and boys identities conduct and problems The Handbook of Studies on Men and Masculinities is an interdisciplinary and international culmination of the growth of men s studies that also offers insight about future directions for the field The Handbook provides a broad view of masculinities primarily across the social sciences with the inclusion of important debates in some areas of the humanities and natural sciences The various approaches presented in this Handbook range across different disciplines theoretical perspectives methodologies and conceptualizations in relation to the topic of men Editors Michael S Kimmel Jeff Hearn and Robert W Connell have assembled an esteemed group of contributors who are among the best known experts in their particular fields The Handbook of Studies on Men and Masculinities examines the construction of masculinities in four different frames the social organization of masculinities in their global and regional iterations the institutional reproduction and articulation of masculinities the ways in which masculinities are organized and practiced within a context of gender relations and the ways in which individual men express and understand their gendered identities The Handbook is organized in a way that moves from the larger global and institutional articulations of masculinities to the more intimate and personal expressions The Handbook of Studies on Men and Masculinities provides scholars researchers and students with the most current incisive scholarship available for the men s studies area of gender studies It is a vital resource for those interested in the practical or cultural issues about men boys and gender as well as an excellent addition to any academic library
