Copying Early Christian Texts Alan Mugridge, 2016-07-19 It is widely believed that the early Christians copied their texts themselves without a great deal of expertise and that some copyists introduced changes to support their theological beliefs In this volume however Alan Mugridge examines all of the extant Greek papyri bearing Christian literature up to the end of the 4th century as well as several comparative groups of papyri and concludes that on the whole Christian texts like most literary texts in the Roman world were copied by trained scribes Professional Christian scribes probably became more common after the time of Constantine but this study suggests that in the early centuries the copyists of Christian texts in Greek were normally trained scribes Christian or not who reproduced those texts as part of their trade and while they made mistakes copied them as accurately as any other texts they were called upon to copy General Imports of Cotton Manufactures ,1978 Nachweisung Über Den Bau und Betrieb Der Unter Verwaltung Der Königl.
