Report of the Chief of Engineers, U.S. Army United States. Army. Corps of Engineers,1939 The Life and Poems of Anne Hunter Caroline Grigson,2009-01-01 Anne Home Hunter 1741 1821 was one of the most successful songwriters of the second half of the eighteenth century and most famously renowned as the poet who wrote the lyrics to many of Haydn s songs This volume contains over two hundred of Hunter s poems many unpublished in her lifetime and collected for the first time extending and amplifying the previously definitive edition of her Poems that was published in 1802 Accompanied by a scholarly introduction and a long biographical essay this expertly researched book sets Hunter s oeuvre in the political social and cultural context of her time Congressional Serial Set ,1980 Water Resources Data for Missouri Geological Survey (U.S.). Water Resources Division,1973 The Allure of Blackness among Mixed-Race Americans, 1862-1916 Ingrid Dineen-Wimberly,2019-10-01 In The Allure of Blackness among Mixed Race Americans 1862 1916 Ingrid Dineen Wimberly examines generations of mixed race African Americans after the Civil War and into the Progressive Era skillfully tracking the rise of a leadership class in Black America made up largely of individuals who had complex racial ancestries many of whom therefore enjoyed racial options to identity as either Black or White Although these people might have chosen to pass as White to avoid the racial violence and exclusion associated with the dominant racial ideology of the time they instead chose to identify as Black Americans a decision that provided upward mobility in social political and economic terms Dineen Wimberly highlights African American economic and political leaders and educators such as P B S Pinchback Theophile T Allain Booker T Washington and Frederick Douglass as well as women such as Josephine B Willson Bruce and E Azalia Hackley who were prominent clubwomen lecturers educators and settlement house founders In their quest for leadership within the African American community these leaders drew on the concept of Blackness as a source of opportunities and power to transform their communities in the long struggle for Black equality The Allure of Blackness among Mixed Race Americans 1862 1916 confounds much of the conventional wisdom about racially complicated people and details the manner in which they chose their racial identity and ultimately overturns the passing trope that has dominated so much Americanist scholarship and social thought about the relationship between race and social and political transformation in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Report United States. Caterina Sforza and the Art of Appearances Joyce de Vries,2016-12-05 In the first major book in four decades on Caterina Sforza 1463 1509 Joyce de Vries investigates the famous noblewoman s cultural endeavors and explores the ways in which gender culture and consumption practices were central to the invention of the self in early modern Italy Sforza commissioned elaborate artistic and architectural works participated in splendid civic and religious rituals and collected a dazzling array of clothing jewelry and household goods By engaging in these realms of cultural production de Vries suggests Sforza manipulated masculine and feminine norms of behavior and effectively promoted her social and political agendas Drawing on visual evidence inventories letters and contemporary texts de Vries offers a penetrating new interpretation of women s contributions to early modern culture She explains the correlations between prescriptive literature and women s actions and reveals the mutability of gender roles in the princely courts De Vries s analysis of Sforza s posthumous legend suggests that what we see as the Renaissance was as much a historical invention as a coherent moment in historical time
