Campbell, 2020-11-24 A Unique Study of Pauline Eschatology that Is Both Exegetical and Theological One of the trajectories coming out of Constantine Campbell s award winning book Paul and Union with Christ is the significance of eschatology for the apostle Along with union with Christ eschatology is a feature of Paul s thinking that affects virtually everything else While union with Christ is the webbing that joins Paul s thought together eschatology provides the shape of his thought and thus gives shape to his teaching about justification resurrection the cross ethics and so forth There is considerable debate however about Paul s eschatology asking whether he is a covenant or an apocalyptic theologian In Paul and the Hope of Glory Campbell conducts a thorough exegetical study of the relevant elements of Paul s eschatological language metaphors and images including parousia the last day inheritance hope and others He examines each passage in context aiming to build inductively an overall sense of Paul s thinking The results of this exegetical study then feed into a theological study that demonstrates the integration of Paul s eschatological thought into his overall theological framework The study is comprised of three parts The first part introduces the key issues both exegetical and theological and sets the parameters and methodology of the book It also offers an historical survey of the scholarly work produced on Paul s eschatology through the twentieth century to the present day The second part contains the detailed exegetical analysis with chapters on each important Pauline phrase metaphor and image related to eschatology The third part turns its attention to theological synthesis It recapitulates relevant conclusions from the evidence adduced in part two and launches into theological discussion engaging current issues and debates This volume combines high level scholarship and a concern for practical application of a topic currently debated in the academy and the church More than a monograph this book is a helpful reference tool for students scholars and pastors to consult its treatment of any particular instance of any phrase or metaphor that relates to eschatology in Paul s thinking     Monthly catalogue, United States public documents ,1910     Daily Statement of the United States Treasury ,1960     Conscientious Objection ... United States.
