Christians have Crisis? UNDERSTANDING CRISIS AND THE AFTERMATH Judith Isaacs-Herrig, M.Ed QIDP,2018-07-29

Of course Christians have crisis As human beings we are surrounded by temptation we all make mistakes and we all suffer with trials in our lives Unfortunately there are well intended Christians who attempt to minister to those suffering or in crisis without realizing how their words of wisdom could actually be counterproductive and potentially harmful This book is a resource for ministry leaders parents teachers and caregivers regarding mental illness chronic pain abortion abuse and addictions It also covers marital and family issues There are facts included throughout the book to reveal the prevalence of each topic and listed resources to increase knowledge in those areas Scripture is included throughout the book to provide solid Christian counsel through each topic If someone came up to you today to reveal they are considering suicide or that they are addicted to porn or prescribed drugs would you know what to say to them What if someone wants to talk to you because they believe their spouse is having an affair or a mother believes her child is being molested or bullied or their adult child is being abused by their spouse Would you know how to advise them Are your words subjective Are they productive Are your words factual and scriptural As a church we need to teach that Christ is a loving and forgiving God We need to have compassion for the misunderstood As a church we need to be knowledgeable of current fads common problems in societies and families so we know how to respond to crises appropriately As a church we need to encourage a safe environment for those in need We need to minister to people with open minds and open hearts And we need to know when it is time to reach out for professional help New York Agricultural Statistics ,2005 Geological Survey Water-supply Paper ,1960 Survey of Current Business ,1964 The Bankers' Almanac and Year Book ,1993 Sarvekshana ,1999 *Report to the Governor and ...
